INTEGRATIVE SKIN BIOSTIMULATION MASTERCLASS

Presented by Dr Marisa Heyns at Dr Nerina Wilkinson + Associates

Integrative Skin Biostimulation: Multimodal regenerative strategies for age-related skin concerns focussing on chemical peeling, mesotherapy with platelet-derived growth factors, and skin boosters with hyaluronic acid containing active ingredients.

This comprehensive masterclass is designed for aesthetic doctors seeking to enhance their expertise in skin biostimulation techniques. Focusing on regenerative strategies to address age-related skin concerns, this course covers the essential concepts of skin biostimulation and effective treatment strategies targeting the epidermis, dermis, and hypodermis. Participants will gain practical hands-on experience to integrate these techniques into their practice.
